Does state offer Election Day registration?

- Yes. Voters may register on Election Day by appearing at the polling place for the precinct in which the person resides and completing a voter registration application, making written oath, and providing proof of residence and identity. Iowa Code § 48A.7A\(1\)\(a\). See below for identification requirements.

Does state allow by-mail registration?

Required for registration and voting? If so, what kinds of ID?

- Registration by Mail: Voters are required to provide a photo ID only in limited circumstances. New registrants do not need to provide a photo ID if they provide either their Iowa driver's license number ("DLN") or the last four digits of the registrant's social security number ("SSN"). If the voter provides their Iowa DLN or their last four digits of the SSN, the county auditor will verify the identification information provided by the voter through either the Department of Transportation data (if registrant provided DLN) or Social Security Administration data (if registrant provided last four of the SSN) in advance of the election. If the county auditor is not able to verify the identification number provided, or the voter indicates they do not have one of these numbers, the registration is processed but the voter is required to show or mail a copy of one of the following current forms of identification before they are allowed to cast a ballot:
  - Utility bill

- Bank statement
- Paycheck
- Government check
- Other government document.

If a person registers and provides an identification number that cannot be verified as described above and that person appears in person at a polling place on election day, but does not have the ID listed above, they are offered an opportunity to essentially re-register using election day registration procedures described below. The voter can cast a provisional ballot, but should first be offered the election day registration option outlined below.

Election Day Registration: To register on election day, voters must provide both proof of identity and proof residency. Under the election day registration framework, if a voter is not able to provide proof of identity, proof of residency or both, then the voter has the option to have another registered voter in the precinct attest to their identity and residency.

An individual registering to vote, either on Election Day or in person before election day, must provide proof of residency and identity. Acceptable photo ID and proof of residence includes:

- A current and valid Iowa driver's license or nonoperator's identification card
- An out-of-state driver's license or nonoperator's identification card
- A United States passport
- A United States military identification card
- An identification card issued by an employer
- A student identification card issued by an Iowa high school or an Iowa postsecondary educational institution

Iowa Code § 48A.7A\(1\)\(b\)\(1\).

- If the photographic identification does not contain the person's current address in the precinct, the person shall also present one of the following documents that shows the person's name and current address in the precinct:
  - Residential lease;
  - Property tax statement;
  - Utility bill (including cell phone bill);
  - Bank statement;
  - Paycheck; or
  - Check or other document issued by a unit of government.

Iowa Code § 48A.7A\(1\)\(b\)\(2\).

If an elector cannot provide proof of residence, the information contained in the registration form may be corroborated by written oath from an elector that resides in the same precinct that is signed in front of the appropriate precinct election official. Iowa Code § 48A.7A\(1\)\(c\).

If a person who is trying to register on election day does not have identification as listed above or an attester, the person is required to cast a provisional ballot. Iowa Code § 48A.8\(4\).

Requirement to provide proof of citizenship to register and/or vote?

- Iowa does not require a voter to provide proof of citizenship

VOTER REGISTRATION DRIVES

May groups “cage” completed registration forms (i.e. asks voters to mail them back to the group, which will then send them to the appropriate county auditors)? If so, may they copy the forms or any of the data included on them? If so, any deadlines for sending the completed forms to the state or to local officials?

- Individual voters may complete and submit the form directly to the county auditor or groups may cage voter registration forms. Groups should send collected registration forms to the county auditors’ offices or the Secretary of State’s Office as soon as possible.
- Groups may print and make copies of the official Iowa voter registration form available here, or they may contact the Iowa Secretary of State’s Office to purchase copies of the voter registration forms at costs.

May a group “pre-fill” some or all of the form before sending/giving it to a would-be registrant?

- No statute, rule, or regulation precludes an organization from filling in information in the registration form before giving the form to a would-be registrant.
- The elector’s original signature is required on each voter registration form.

May voter registration drive workers assist a voter in completing their registration form?

- Yes. Voter registration drive workers may assist a voter in completing their registration form. Iowa Code § 48A.25.

Does state require training of voter registration workers?

Does state require registration of voter registration drives?

- No, groups undertaking voter registration drives do not have to register with the Iowa Secretary of State’s Office to hold a voter registration drive.

Are there requirements that a group must provide information to voters about how they may contact the group to determine the status of their registration?

- No statute, rule, or regulation requires a group to provide information to voters about how the voter may contact the group to determine the status of their registration.

May a group pay voter registration drive workers? If so, is it permissible to pay on a per-voter-registered basis?

- Groups may pay workers to assist others in completing voter registration forms. Iowa law prohibits paying someone based on the number of registration forms or political party affiliations collected. Payment may be made only for a person's time. The Democratic and Republican parties are exempt from this requirement. Iowa Code § 48A.25.
